Everyone is Welcome!

“We have had wars upon wars upon wars to create peace. Peace has never come through war. Our policies don’t bring peace. Our laws don’t create peace Our educational systems have not brought peace. Our technological advancements haven’t prevented war. Nothing has worked. That means that we, the people, we need to change! Only by Melting the Ice in the Heart of Man, will man have a chance to change and begin using his knowledge wisely.”

~ Angaangaq Angakkorsuaq
